

Carol Wilkins is the Director of Intergovernmental Policy with the Corporation for Supportive Housing, where she works to develop and support the implementation of policy solutions to end long-term homelessness for people who have complex health needs and multiple barriers to employment. She has more than 25 years of experience in public finance, human services and policy work, including work with the California Legislature's office of the Legislative Analyst, the State Assembly Ways and Means Committee, as Deputy Mayor of Finance in San Francisco, and as Finance Director for the San Francisco Housing Authority. She manages CSH's national public policy and research activities, and works to increase the capacity of state and local governments and non-profit agencies to create integrated systems to expand supportive housing opportunities for people with disabilities and those who are homeless.
