NOTES

Democrat (D), Republican (R)

- a) American Samoa Lt. Governor Togiola T.A. Tulafono became governor on April 7, 2003, following the death of Governor Tauese Sunia on March 26, 2003. Governor Tulafono was elected to a full four-year term in 2004.
- b) Arnold Schwarzenegger was elected governor of California in October 2003 following the recall of Governor Gray Davis. Governor Schwarzenegger was inaugurated on November 17, 2003. Governor Schwarzenegger was elected to a full four-year term in 2006. Governor Schwarzenegger completes his second term in 2011. He is prohibited from seeking a third term.
- c) Connecticut Lt. Governor M. Jodi Rell became governor on July 1, 2004, completing Governor John Rowland's unexpired term following Governor Rowland's resignation. Governor Rell was elected to her first four-year term in 2006.
- d) Absolute two-term limitation.
- e) After two consecutive terms as governor, the candidate must wait four years before becoming eligible to run again.
- f) Limit of eight years of service out of every 16 years.
- g) Nebraska Lt. Governor Dave Heineman became governor on January 21, 2005, completing the unexpired term of Governor Mike Johanns following Governor Johanns's appointment to the office of U.S. Secretary of Agriculture. Governor Heineman was elected to a full four-year term in 2006. Heineman is eligible to seek re-election to a second term in 2010.
- h) After two consecutive terms as governor, the candidate must wait four years before becoming eligible to run again.
- i) Two-year term.
- j) Absolute two-term limitation.
- k) After two consecutive terms as governor, the candidate must wait four years before becoming eligible to run again.
- l) Texas Lt. Governor Rick Perry became governor in December 2000 when Governor George W. Bush was elected President. Governor Perry was elected to full four-year terms in November 2002 and November 2006.
- m) Two-year term.
- n) Governor cannot serve immediate successive terms, but may be elected to non-consecutive terms.
- o) After two consecutive terms as governor, the candidate must wait four years before becoming eligible to run again.
- p) New York Lt. Governor David Paterson became governor on March 17, 2008, completing the unexpired term of Governor Eliot Spitzer following Governor Spitzer's resignation from office. Paterson is eligible to seek a full term in 2010.
- q) Arizona Secretary of State Jan Brewer became governor on January 21, 2009, completing the unexpired term of Governor Janet Napolitano following her appointment as U.S. Secretary of Homeland Security. Brewer is eligible to seek a full term in 2010.
