Learning and Networking Opportunities for Governors' Policy Advisors

The HSPS Division offers a variety of learning and networking opportunities via intensive technical assistance projects, meetings, conference calls and webinars. The ability of states to learn from the experience of other states and network with their colleagues is a hallmark of those opportunities. Division staff facilitate this through:

- Policy Academies: Over 12 to 18 months, the division convenes state teams for specific, intensive technical assistance and strategic planning focused on a public policy challenge affecting many states.
- Policy Institutes and Workshops: The division hosts an annual policy institute for governors' criminal justice policy advisors, a biannual conference for governors' homeland security advisors, and other workshops on specific topics to bring governors' staff together with subject-matter experts to exchange ideas, and identify best practices.
- Conference Calls and Webinars: The division routinely hosts conference calls and webinars to highlight new and emerging issues and allow for peer-to-peer exchange.

Technical Assistance for Governors' Policy Advisors

NGA staff provide tailored technical assistance to governors' advisors upon request. Assistance can include on-site visits, workshops, confidential memos, consultation on a policy development process or access to outside experts to help the governor's office move its agenda. In addition, the HSPS Division manages a network of governors' criminal justice policy advisors, the Consortium of State Public Safety Executives, and the Governors Homeland Security Advisors Council.

Resources for Governors' Policy Advisors

The HSPS division publishes a variety of materials, based on the best available evidence of what works, offering practical solutions to the most pressing policy issues. These include:

- Issue Briefs and White Papers: Analyzes policy challenges, identifies lessons learned and offers recommendations.
